FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

12. On August 27, 2022, at approximately 9:00 p.m., defendant officers, acting in concert, arrested plaintiff without cause at or within the vicinity of a Deli known as Carve Café & Pizza on 45th Street, at or close to its intersection with 8th Avenue, New York, New York, and charged plaintiff with various crimes including N.Y. PL 225.05 ‘Promoting gambling in the second degree’.
13. Plaintiff, however, did not commit any offense against the laws of New York City and/or State for which any arrest may be lawfully made.

14. Prior to her arrest, plaintiff was out on the street in Manhattan taking a walk with her friend Andre Palmer who was visiting from the South, and at some point both plaintiff and Palmer entered the Carve Café & Pizza Deli where they stayed for about five minutes and left.
15. As plaintiff and Palmer were leaving the Deli, some police officers suddenly descended upon them, and grabbed the plaintiff and Palmer with great force.
16. Defendant officers tightly handcuffed the plaintiff with her hands placed behind her back causing the plaintiff to experience pain and numbness.
17. Defendant officers subjected the plaintiff to an illegal body search.
18. Defendant officers did not recover any contraband from their unlawful search of the plaintiff.
19. Plaintiff inquired on multiple occasions as to the reason for her arrest.
20. Defendant officers did not respond to the plaintiff's inquiries.
21. Eventually, defendant officers forcibly placed the plaintiff inside their police vehicle and transported the plaintiff to the 14th Police Precinct.
22. While at the precinct, defendant officers subjected the plaintiff to an illegal and unlawful search.
23. Defendant officers did not recover any contraband from their unlawful search of the plaintiff.
24. Nonetheless, defendant officers continued to detain the plaintiff at the precinct.
25. After detaining the plaintiff at the precinct for a lengthy period of time, plaintiff was issued a Desk Appearance Ticket (DAT).
26. At some point following her arrest, defendant officers met with prosecutors employed by the New York County District Attorney's Office.
27. During this meeting, defendant officers falsely stated to the prosecutors, among other things, that the plaintiff committed the charged crime/offense(s), and later forwarded to the prosecutors their falsified police records and reports.
28. Relying upon the police records, reports and statements, the prosecutors initiated criminal actions against the plaintiff.

29. On or about September 15, 2022, the plaintiff was arraigned on a criminal court complaint sworn to by defendant officers falsely charging the plaintiff with N.Y. PL 225.05 ‘Promoting gambling in the second degree’.
30. Plaintiff appeared in court several times to defend herself against the charges and on December 14, 2022, all the charges brought against her were dismissed.
31. Each and every officer who responded to and/or was present at the location of the arrest and at the precinct and/or station house knew and was fully aware that the plaintiff did not commit any crime or offense, and had a realistic opportunity to intervene to prevent the harm detailed above from occurring.
32. Nonetheless, defendants did absolutely nothing to discourage and prevent the harm detailed above from occurring and failed to protect and ensure the safety of the plaintiff.
33. As a result of the aforesaid actions by defendants, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer emotional distress, fear, embarrassment, humiliation, shock, discomfort, loss of liberty, wages and financial losses, pain and, damage to reputation.

73. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION: FAILURE TO TRAIN/SUPERVISE/DISCIPLINE/SCREEN AND MUNICIPAL POLICY - against defendant City

74. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.
75. Defendant City of New York, acting through the NYPD, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of failing to properly train, supervise or discipline its police officers concerning correct practices in conducting investigations, the proper identification procedures, the constitutional prohibition against racial profiling, the proper use of force, obligation not to promote or condone perjury and/or assist in the prosecution of innocent persons and obligation to effect an arrest only when probable cause exists for such arrest. In addition, defendant City had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of failing to properly screen its prospective police officers for mental fitness, history of misconduct, good moral character and propensity for violence.
76. Defendant City of New York, acting through aforesaid NYPD, had actual and/or de facto policies, practices, customs and/or usages of wrongfully arresting, illegally stopping, frisking, searching, seizing, abusing, humiliating, degrading and/or maliciously prosecuting individuals who are members of racial/ethnic minority groups such as plaintiff on the pretext that they were involved in robbery, narcotics, drugs, guns and/or other crimes.

77. Further, the existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional policies, practices, customs and/or usages may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct.

78. For example, in Floyd v. City of New York, 813 F. Supp. 2d 417, 422 (S.D.N.Y. 2011), this Court observed that the City had been accused of racial profiling on multiple occasions and that it had settled at least one of the lawsuits brought against it concerning racial profiling.

79. In Ligon v. City of New York, 925 F. Supp. 2d 478, 485-86 (S.D.N.Y. 2013), the Court observed that the City of New York, acting through the NYPD, engages in unlawful stop and frisk. See also Davis v. City of New York, 959 F. Supp. 2d 324 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (same).

80. Notably, numerous civil rights complaints filed in this district and state courts have similarly alleged that many of the police officers involved in this case, including the defendant officers, routinely stop and frisk and manufacture evidence of criminality against individuals who are members of racial/ethnic minority groups such as the plaintiff in order to arrest and maliciously prosecute them. See, e.g., Anthony Holley v. City of New York (23 CV 1838), Sequan Wilson v. City of New York (Index No. 815834/2022E), Leotaud Guerra v. City of New York (Index No. 816562/2021E), Lashonda Coates-Samuels v. City of New York (Index No. 33894/2020E), Robert Collins v. City of New York (Index No. 32647/2019E), Timothy Hampton v. City of New York (18 CV 7755), Jose DeLeon v. Elvin Pichardo (15 CV 9804), Anthony Caceres v. City of New York (09 CV 8134).

81. Defendant City has settled numerous lawsuits in this district against several police officers assigned to the NYPD-14th Precinct alleging, among other things, that the police officers falsely arrested and maliciously prosecuted the plaintiffs without probable cause.

82. Despite the numerous complaints of civil rights violations described hereinabove, there has been no meaningful attempt on the part of defendant

City to forestall further incidents and/or even to investigate claims that police officers routinely arrest innocent citizens without probable cause.

- 83. As a result of Defendant City's failure to properly train, supervise or discipline its police officers, defendant officers unlawfully arrested the plaintiff.
- 84. Defendant City of New York maintained the above described policies, practices, customs or usages knowing fully well that the policies, practices, customs or usages lead to improper conduct by its police officers and employees. In failing to take any corrective actions, defendant City of New York acted with deliberate indifference, and its failure was a direct and proximate cause of plaintiff's injuries as described herein.
- 85. The actions of defendants, acting under color of State law, deprived plaintiff of her due process rights, and rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities under the laws and Constitution of the United States, treatise, ordinances, customary international law and norms, custom and usage of a right; in particular, the right to be secure in her person and property, to be free from abuse of process, the excessive use of force and the right to due process.
- 86. By these actions, defendants have deprived plaintiff of rights secured by treatise, ordinances, customary international law and norms, custom and usage of a right, and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEW YORK STATE CONSTITUTION,
ARTICLE 1, §§ 5, 6, 8, 11, 12 – against defendants

- 87. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.
- 88. By reason of the foregoing, and by arresting, detaining and imprisoning plaintiff without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, and harassing and assaulting her and depriving her of due process and equal protection of laws, defendants deprived plaintiff of rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to every New Yorker by Article I, § 5 (prohibiting cruel and unusual punishments), Article 1, § 6 (providing for due process), Article 1, §

8 (guaranteeing freedom of speech), Article 1, § 11 (prohibiting discrimination in civil rights and providing for equal protection of laws) & Article I, § 12 (prohibiting unreasonable searches & seizures) of the New York Constitution.

89. In addition, the individual officers conspired among themselves and conspired with other individuals to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by Article I, §§ 5, 6, 8, 11 & 12 of the New York Constitution, and took numerous overt steps in furtherance of such conspiracy, as set forth above.

90. The individual officers acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employments as officers, agents, or employees. The individual officers' acts were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority of law, and in abuse of their powers. The individual officers acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by Article I, §§ 5, 6, 8, 11 & 12 of the New York Constitution.

91. Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, and employees were responsible for the deprivation of plaintiff's state constitutional rights.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION: TORTS (FALSE ARREST/IMPRISONMENT) – against defendants

92. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.

93. The conduct of the defendants, as described herein, amounted to false arrest/imprisonment.

94. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION: TORTS (MALICIOUS PROSECUTION) - against defendants

95. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.
96. The conduct of defendant officers, as described herein, amounted to malicious prosecution.
97. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION: TORTS (ASSAULT AND BATTERY) - against defendants

98. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.
99. By reason of, and as a consequence of, the conduct of defendant officers, plaintiff sustained bodily injuries with the accompanying pain.
100. The conduct of the defendants, as described herein, amounted to assault and battery.
101. Consequently, plaintiff has been damaged and hereby demands compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial against each of the defendants, individually and severally.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION: NEGLIGENT HIRING AND RETENTION OF EMPLOYMENT SERVICES – against defendant City

102. The allegations contained in the foregoing paragraphs are incorporated and repeated in this paragraph.
103. Upon information and belief, defendant City failed to properly train, supervise or discipline its agents, servants, employees, officers and/or representatives, including the defendant officers, concerning correct practices in conducting investigations, the proper identification procedures, the proper use of force, obligation not to promote or condone perjury and/or assist in the prosecution of innocent persons and obligation to effect an arrest only when probable cause exists for such arrest.

104. Upon information and belief, Defendant City failed to properly screen, hire and/or retain the defendant officers.
105. Upon information and belief, Defendant City, through its various agencies and departments including the defendants in this action, owed a duty of care to plaintiff to prevent the physical and mental abuse sustained by plaintiff.
106. Upon information and belief, defendant City, through its various agencies and departments including the defendants in this action, owed a duty of care to plaintiff because under the same or similar circumstances a reasonable, prudent and careful person should have anticipated that an injury to plaintiff or to those in a like situation would probably result from such conduct described herein.
107. Upon information and belief, Defendant City knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable diligence that defendant officers were not prudent and were potentially dangerous.
108. Upon information and belief, Defendant City's negligence in screening, hiring and retaining defendant officers proximately caused plaintiff's injuries.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully prays judgment as follows:

- a. For compensatory damages against all defendants in an amount to be proven at trial;
- b. For exemplary and punitive damages against all defendants in an amount to be proven at trial;
- c. For costs of suit herein, including plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees; and;
- d. For such other and further relief as the court deems proper.

DEMAND FOR TRIAL BY JURY

Pursuant to Rule 38 (b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff demands a trial by jury.
